

What better way to spend a Sunday afternoon than listening to good music, drinking fine wine and catching up with friends.....

Please join us for a
Sunday of Strings

Sunday 12 September in the LPS School Hall at 4.30pm

Each of our ensembles will showcase the pieces of music they've recently learnt – an opportunity to enjoy and celebrate their achievements and hard work.

The concert will be followed by wine, cheese and kid-friendly refreshments until 6.30pm.

Please arrive at 4.20pm for a 4.30pm start.

To assist in making more enjoyable for all, we will provide supervision for toddlers/pre-schoolers outside the hall.

RSVP: by Friday 3 September to Tara Laybutt via tara.laybutt@macquarie.com.

For catering/childminding arrangements, please include:

- * Your child's name
- * Numbers attending – adults, school children and toddlers/preschoolers
